

The Chinese School at the Capital District of New York provides Chinese language education to help children of Chinese heritage achieve academic excellence in studying Chinese. It also provides a learning opportunity to all residents in the Capital Region who are interested in learning Chinese culture and language. Our goal is to create a nurturing learning environment where Chinese culture is promoted and celebrated, and where students and parents in the area are valued partners in promoting Chinese language and culture.

The Chinese School operates on Sunday afternoons during the school year at Shaker Junior High School at 475 Watervliet-Shaker Road, Latham, NY 12110.
