

DO YOU WANT TO TEACH CHINESE LANGUAGE IN THE US?

INTRODUCING THE MASTER OF ARTS (MAT) IN TEACHING CHINESE LANGUAGE

- Prepares graduates for initial and professional certification to teach Chinese, gr. 7-12
- For students who majored in East Asian Studies, Chinese
- For native Chinese speakers with Bachelor's degree

THE PROGRAM TIMELINE:

- Can be completed in one-year (June—June) Or
- Can be completed in two years. (Begins in Fall semester)

For more information call:

- Sherri Duan, director Chinese language MAT
- 518-631-9870 or sduan@clarkson.edu

According to the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages, more than 5000 primary and secondary school students were enrolled in school-based Chinese language study in 2000.

That number soared to 50,000 by 2007 and is “Clarkson’s MAT graduates are all ex-tremely professional, achieve high results and outperform new teachers from other programs.” (High School Principal, Urban

95% job placement rate for graduates

<http://graduate.clarkson.edu/program/masters-arts-teaching/>