

Special Invitation to the Tang Museum at Skidmore College!

Hello Chinese School students!

My name is Sunny Ra and I am the Museum Educator for the school and Community Programs at the Tang Museum at Skidmore College.

I would like to invite you to the Tang to meet with artist Yun-Fei Ji on Wednesday, February 20, 2019 at 1:00-3:00pm. You will have the unique opportunity to meet talk with Yun-Fei Ji! After the artist talk, we will work on our own art project, inspired by our conversation with Ji using a variety of media! Here is some information about the artist:

Yun-Fei Ji was born in Beijing, China, and now lives and works in New York, Ohio, and Beijing. Using traditional Chinese painting techniques and addressing contemporary social, environmental, and political issues, Ji's work marries history with the present. As Ji states, "I use landscape painting to explore the utopian dreams of Chinese history, from past collectivization to new consumerism."

To hear Yun-Fei Ji talk about his background, click here. To hear Ji talk about one of his works, click here!

Please register online if you are interested in participating in this special workshop with Yun-Fei Ji. Space is limited, only 25 spots and on a first come, first served basis.

We hope you will join us for this wonderful event!

Regards,

Sunny Ra
Museum Educator for K-12 and Community
Programs
Tang Museum at Skidmore College
sra@skidmore.edu
518.580.5538

Yun-Fei Ji (born Beijing, 1963)
Bon Voyage, 2002
ink and mineral pigment on mulberry paper
77 x 26 1/2 in.
Gift of Peter Norton, 2015.26.8

tang

Frances Young Tang Teaching Museum
and Art Gallery at Skidmore College
518-580-5538 | sra@skidmore.edu

815 N. Broadway
Saratoga Springs, NY
12866

